

He was born in 1974, in Chile, where he studied literature, linguistics, laws and fine arts. In 2002, he obtained a master's degree in visual arts at the Universidad de Chile, and in 2012 a master's degree in Aesthetics and Art Theory at the Universidad Autónoma de Barcelona. He has received several scholarships and prizes in different countries including Denmark, Canada, Norway, Germany, Spain and Chile, where he has also exhibited his work and participated in different programs as a resident artist. Among his most recent exhibitions we can mention El seminario Gramsci, at La Capella, Barcelona (2012); The Reality of the Lowest Rank, at Errant Bodies Space, Berlín (2012); [in 'habit]ing, at the Institute for Critical Research, San Francisco (2010); After 1973, at Charlotte Fogh Contemporary, Arhus, Denmark (2009).